

The people are rapidly getting their eyes opened to the fact that for first-class goods, elegant styles, low down prices, and an immense stock.

The "When" has no equal in the County. We manufacture goods especially for our own retail trade, and are always careful to put no goods into our stock that will not in every respect come fully up to representation. Our goods are marked in plain figures, sold strictly at one price to all, and satisfaction in every case guaranteed or the money promptly refunded. We are opening this week a magnificent line of Children's, Boy's, Youth's and Men's Suits and Overcoats at prices which cannot fail to please. Also, 500 heavy weight undershirts and drawers at 25 cents each, selling elsewhere at double the money.

Dr. Joyce, in his sermon on newspapers Sunday night, said an editor has an advantage in being able to repeat his points until he has made the desired impression. We suggest that Dr. Joyce repeat that sermon in the form of a lecture. It should be heard by everybody. What he said needs wide circulation just now.

The fair and supper at Roberts Chapel Tuesday evening was in every way a great success. The church was crowded throughout the evening. The ladies spread a sumptuous dinner Wednesday, which was liberally patronized. The net proceeds amounted to about one hundred and twenty-five dollars.

Yesterday morning as Robert and Ed. Crow, with their sister Jessie, children of E. R. Crow, were coming to town in a buggy to attend Asbury, the horse became frightened while passing a mover's wagon, and ran away. The buggy struck a fence and was badly broken, while the occupants were thrown to the ground with violence, but no serious injury was done. They walked the rest of the way to town.

Capt. Stup, late of the Confederate army, and later of the Junction, visited his friends in this vicinity Friday, with an empty knife scabbard on his person. The Captain was surprised and mortified to learn that things had gone wrong with the Democracy since he left Putnam county, and attributed their reduced majority and partial defeat, all, to his absence. By night-fall he had stowed away so many "social drinks" that Marshal Donohue gathered him in, and left him in jail to sober up. He was fined in the mayor's court next day. The fine was paid by his political friends, and the Captain departed. He says that he is a representative Democrat.

Although it was raining hard, a very large number attended the funeral service of Mrs. Isaac Browning at Locust street church last Sabbath morning, conducted by Rev. F. C. Igleshart. Miss Amanda Steers was born in Washington county, Indiana, June 2, 1827, and was married to Isaac Browning, August 31, 1848. On her fiftieth birthday she felt the first approach of the disease, consumption, that dragged her down, and on last Friday she passed away. When about 13 years of age she was converted and joined the Baptist church, but her family being Methodist she had her membership transferred to the Methodist church, in which she lived and died. She was a faithful wife, a loving mother, a true friend, an exemplary christian, and has passed from toil to reward.

Quite as Sensitive.

The sense of smell of the American People is quite as sensitive as those of any country—and certainly, when this faculty is tutored, perfumes may be made in America as excellent as those which come from abroad. Judges of fine odors credit Dr. Price with nice taste in the compounding of his Unique Perfumes.

I desire customers for the best Pianos and Organs in the market, at prices defying competition.
